

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Goal!

As the time for New Years resolutions is fast approaching, I have been considering my next goal for reaching 100%!

I shared with you last time that I had set 50% as a goal for the end of December. When I wrote in November, I had already surpassed that goal, and my team is continuing to grow. I am now at 57%! I am so excited to see how God is growing my team!

So, with the help of my marketing coach, I have set a new goal to reach 100%. So, in 2017, we are saying,

Please Pray...

1. Thank God for helping my team to reach 57% this year!
 2. Pray that God will provide and help us to reach our new goal of 100% by August of 2017.
 3. Continue to pray for Jamie, Sarah, and I as we prepare to go to Italy as a team. It's only a month away! Praise that everyone has received passports.

hello august

I will be working toward reaching 100% by August of 2017. You can be part of this team! I hope that as you consider your New Years resolutions, you will consider adding "impacting people with the Bible" to your list. I would love to have you as part of my team! And thank you to the many people who joined the team in 2016 for making it a year of God's blessings.

As you are giving this season, consider giving the gift of God's Word. This gift has a lasting impact on the lives of those it reaches. If you would like to include your gift on your 2016 taxes, please give online before December 31, or make sure your gift is postmarked by that day.

It's snowing here in Wisconsin! This picture was taken on one of our first snows. Jamie enjoyed stepping in every slushy snow-pile she could find. It's a bit colder now (below zero!), so we dash from house to car without stopping

Takilma Bible Church

Remember back in October when I went to Oregon to speak at my Grandma's church? That church is Takilma Bible Church. The church is supporting my mission, and is a mission field in itself! Here is a video showing a little bit more about Takilma Bible Church. Click on the picture or the link to go to my website and watch. Thanks so much to Pastor Dan and the rest of the church for partnering with me!

to play. However, Jamie is anxiously awaiting the day when it is warm enough to go outside and build a snowman!

Welcome to Takilma Bible Church!
